Japantown Historic Survey Update

Saturday, April 8, 10 a.m. to 12 noon
Yu-Ai Kai Building, 3rd Floor Meeting Room
588 North 4th Street, San Jose

Join us for an informational session on the documentation of San Jose Japantown's Historic Buildings and what the future might hold for Japantown's past.

The survey consultants from Carey and Company and the San Jose City Planning Department will

- ❖ Review the Phase I survey: The San Jose Japantown Historic Context and Reconnaissance Survey,
- ❖ Outline the current survey work,
- ❖ Discuss potential future designations that may range from individual structures being nominated as landmarks or a determination of a conservation area or historic district.

If you live, work, play, own property or a business, or just have a concern for Japantown's future, please join us.

For more information, contact Sally Zarnowitz, San Jose City Acting Historic Preservation Officer, (408) 535-7834 or the Japantown Community Congress (408) 293-4127 or email: info@jcc-sj.org.
