

30th Annual California Preservation Conference

May 12-15, 2005

Riverside, CA, at the Historic Riverside Mission Inn

Join the estimated 500 attendees from across California who will attend the 2005 California Preservation Conference to network and learn about issues facing historic preservation in California and beyond. Sessions and activities ranging from interactive, hands-on how-to sessions to presentations on current and best practices, technical issues, the local perspective and the newest information on legislation including:

- NEW: Pre-conference sessions on Main Street Communities, Making CEQA Work in Your Neighborhood, Sustainability and Historic Preservation, and Cultural Landscapes.
- Track sessions include Cultural Landscapes, Modernism, Sustainability, CEQA and Landmarks of Social Change.
- Mobile Workshops and Tours
- The Doctor is In! The popular interactive question and answer session
- Main Street, State and Local Government Forums
- Networking opportunities -- receptions, special events and more!

To receive more information on how you can support the conference, volunteer or register, complete this form and submit to the California Preservation Foundation.

We look forward to seeing you in Riverside!